Sir Knight Rufus A. Reber.

The Chicago Masonic Chronicle for June, presents a beautiful life like picture of our former fellow-citizen and publishes this record of his Masonic relation.

"Born July 21, 1857. Died March 18, 1901. Was made a Mason in Mingo Lodge, No. 171, F. and A. M., Logan, Ohio; belonged to Logan Chapter, No. 75; was created a Companion of the Illustrations Order of the Red Cross on the 23 day of February, 1892, and dubbed a Knight Templar and made a Knight of Malta on the 21st day of April following by Lancaster Commandery, No. 2, Lancaster, Ohio, and was a member of the above bodies at the time of his death. He was manager of the Masonic Review, Cincinnati, during 1898-99.

Brother Reber was a brother of the present publisher of the Masonic Voice-Review, Brother M. B. Reber of Dearborn Lodge, No. 310, Chicago, and he was an enthusiastic Mason and took an active interest in Masonry. He was particularly proud of his membership in Lancaster Commandery, No. 2, whose membership, past and present, includes some of the most distinguished Knights Templar of the United States."

Mr. J. J. McCarthy, orator of Buffalo Bill's Wild West, while in the item office Saturday evening and seeing the advertisement of Harris' World Famous Nickel Plate show said: "The Nickel Plate is one of the best on the road today. I can't see how they give so much for the money but they do it. You may assure your readers on my recommendation that they will find this show clean, up-to-date, full of amusement and worth more than the money they have to pay to see it.—The Evening Item Richmond, Ind., May 8. At Logan, Friday, July 12th.

The Clear Fork Band entertained our people on the 4th with some enjoyable music. For the limited opportunities the boys have had in practice, they do remarkably well. Their festival at Rempel's grove was disturbed by a lot of drunken rowdies who should be returned to the Grand Jury and given a term in the work house, and the next time the boys from the country give an entertainment, if the marshal is not on hand to protect them, they should carry good country clubs and knock the heads off the toughs, who molest them.
